The day is drawing nearer when our master will return.

F G C E F E

and 'till that hour we cannot sleep, we must our lanterns burn.

For grievous wolves will enter in and scatter the sheep.

Am Am/G F Dm C/E F6 G Csus4

I am my brother's keeper, I must my brother keep.

The precious gospel message must not dim or fade away.

By every wind of doctrine tossed, we can't let it decay!

For though the world and human thought would have us fall to sleep.

I am my brother's keeper, I must my brother keep.

For Godly love denies the self, esteems the other more.

And Godly love desires the truth, desires not a reward!

For sacrificial love demands a love that's broad and deep!

I am my brother's keeper, I must my brother keep.

A love that seeks our brother's need our Father doth require to keep them on the narrow path and pull them from the fire!

Too late is it at judgment time, too many tears we'll weep!

I am my brother's keeper, I must my brother keep.

Now is the time to serve our God and serve each other too.

To earnestly contend for what is holy and is true!

For many are the blessings, which, if chosen, we will reap.

I am my brother's keeper, I must my brother keep.
